AMERICAN BUDGERIGAR SOCIETY
CURRENT RESOLUTIONS

This booklet contains the current resolutions passed by the American Budgerigar Society Broad of Directors at the annual meetings held in conjunction with All American since 1960. (The year and motion # of each resolution is in parenthesis). If a resolution is in conflict with the ABS By-Laws, the By-Laws take precedence. (#2, 2013)

RESOLUTIONS:

1. ADVANCEMENT

- a. If two novice or intermediate exhibitors form a partnership, the wins of both partners shall be considered for advancement to the next higher division. (1978)
- b. That all persons living in the same household shall show in the same division except juniors. (# 58 1984)
- c. That all wins which count toward advancement for the exhibitor will be with different birds, (#42 1985)
- d. Advancement Secretary responsible for tracking the wins toward advancement for Junior, Novice and Intermediate exhibitors and for providing the Editor of the ABS Bulletin a report of those exhibitors that advanced to the next higher division listing the wins (band code, bird description, show, placement, and judges) for publication in the March/ April issue (#6 2002)
- e. Rare variety exhibitors would advance through normal channels (#55 1989)
- f. If a Novice places a bird on the top bench at a legal show, he is awarded a leg toward advancement regardless of the number of novice exhibitors at the show. (#31 1993)
- g. The Intermediate Advancement rule change to state: At a qualified show, a minimum of 25 birds in the Champion Division, with 3 or more Champion exhibitors is needed to advance from an Intermediate to a Champion. The exhibitor shall win any of the 1st through 10th Best in Show awards with birds of his own breeding, at 3 different shows, with one win 6th or higher. Wins shall be with different birds. (#17 2002)
- h. Include in the Rules for Advancement the following: These rules are intended to protect the exhibitor from having to advance before he/she is ready. In addition these rules are to protect those exhibitors not winning top spots in their respective divisions by forcing the stronger exhibitor to advance. At any time an Intermediate Exhibitor may declare him/herself to be a Champion Exhibitor. At any time a Novice Exhibitor may declare him/herself to be an Intermediate Exhibitor. At any time a Junior Exhibitor may declare him/herself to be a Novice Exhibitor. (#18 2002)

- i. Develop a form for member's to send in for advancement in order to be officially recognized by ABS. (#7 2002)
- j. Include in the Rules for Advancement . Any Intermediate or Novice Exhibitor who receives three (3) points will be required to advance the following January 1st. Any Junior Exhibitor who receives six (6) points will be required to advance the following January 1st. (#19 2002)
- k. Changing the required number of exhibitors in Novice Division from 5 to 3 for points to be assessed. (#21 2002)

2. ALL AMERICAN SHOW

- a. Invitations for the All American show be accepted two years in advance and notification be given at that time. (1964)
- b. Entries in an All American show not be limited to budgerigars but the type of show be left to the decision of the sponsoring club (1971)
- c. That the club hosting the All American be required to use the recommended schedule of classes as set forth and in effect at the time of the All American. (#17 1992)
- d. ABS reestablish the awarding of an ABS Plaque at the All American for the Best Registered Bird or show proof that the award was discontinued by vote of the Executive Committee. (#20 2001)
- e. That the contract with the host club of the All American states that violation of any provisions of the contract will result in the All American automatically be withdrawn and reassigned. (#21 1992)
- f. That all hosting clubs for the All American must make provisions to allow birds in the motel rooms. (1982)
- g. ABS reserves the fourth weekend in September as the date for the All American. No other ABS sanctioned shows may be held on this date. Clubs wishing to host the All American on a date other than the fourth weekend in September should keep in mind that the date chosen may conflict with another club's annual show date. Only clubs with show dates that conflict with the date chosen for the All American will be able and encouraged to host their show on the fourth weekend of September. This rule supersedes all previous rules pertaining to the date for the ABS All American. (#11 2003)
- h. The All American shows must have a mandatory Junior Division. (#31 1984)
- i. To give the host club for the All American $2000.00 to help defray costs. (#19 2001) (#13 2003) (#10 2009)(#7 2015)

- j. That the All American Application Packet be accepted as presented. (#42 1989)
- k. That all future All American Shows, only ABS Panel Judges will be used. (#37 1990)
- l. Office of 2nd VP has the responsibility for conducting the educational contest for future All Americans in consultations with the host club. (#75 1994)
- m. Treasurer and Board Members of ABS form a financial committee to find a ways and means to help defray the cost of the All American to exclude raising membership dues. (#14 2003)
- n. Provide the host club for the All American a full page ad in ABS Bulletin one year prior to the show date effective immediately. (#75 2002)
- o. Host club to choose day of weekend to hold show for All American. (#6 2006)

3. ABS AFFILIATED CLUB SHOWS

- a. “That District Directors and Officers take back to their districts these guidelines to encourage viewing of the birds whenever possible.” (#24 1991)
- b. If one judge is engaged by an affiliated club, it must be an ABS Panel Judge; if two are engaged, one must be an ABS Panel Judge. (1976) in a show employing more than two judges, a majority of the judges will be selected from the ABS Panel of Judges. (#47 1988) (Corrected 1994)
- c. Clubs be authorized to add Best in Show wins to Intermediate, Novice, Rare and Junior certificates. (#19 2000)
- d. Only birds entered in Champion, Intermediate, Novice, Junior, & Rare divisions be counted in the number of birds entered in a show. This specifically excludes all sale birds (#24 1988) (Corrected 1994) (1996)
- e. That ABS allow for double banded birds by ABS members, with a second band, at ABS shows, providing one band is an ABS band and the bird is bred and banded by the exhibitor and that both bands are traceable to the Exhibitor. Family plastic bands are allowed. (#9 2007)
- f. All varieties, regardless of exhibitor’s status, are to be judged together with the top birds being compared within their individual divisions. (#53 1989)
- g. The varieties as presented be accepted in the Rare Division. (Greywing, Clearflighted, Laced Clearbody (Texas & Easley), Yellow, White, Clearwing, Recessive Pied, Crested, Red Eye Lacewing, Fallow, Black Eyed clear, and AOV/AOC) (#54 1989) (#58 1998)
- h. A bird shall only be considered for a single variety award. (#56 1989).

i. In order for a show to count for all exhibitors there must be three (3) champion breeders entered in the show and they must enter a minimum total of 10 birds . Each entry must be bred, banded, and owned by the exhibitor. [Except for open shows. See h. above] (#42 1990) (Corrected 1994)

j. ABS allow affiliated clubs to hold an optional Beginner's Division if they wish". (#6 1991)

k. ABS recommends use of the chrome show cage fronts by all exhibitors. (#34 1994)

l. A person not work as Chief Steward (Judges Assistant) while his or her division is being judged, if possible. (#35 1994)

m. ABS recommends that clear water finger drinkers be provided by the host club and those be made available for sale through the products division. (#13 1995)

n. If in the judgment of the Show Chairman, in concert with the show committee, a judging time of over 4 hours is anticipated, he may declare an "Emergency condition" and add additional judges to judge in divisions, which they are not exhibiting. The additional judge or judges will be covered by the rules pertaining to the "Emergency condition" in the judges' panel show rules. (#42 1994)
